UNDERSTANDING FEES AND EXPENSES
LOCAL FAMILIES¹
(Attachment A)

Overview

Spence-Chapin Services to Families and Children (“Spence-Chapin”) is a not-for-profit agency that relies on a combination of fees, grants, and fundraising to support its work in intercountry adoption.

This document is available to the general public, including prospective adoptive parents, prior to application. This document provides a written schedule of expected total fees, estimated expenses, and an explanation of the conditions under which fees or expenses may be charged, waived, modified, or refunded. This document outlines when and how the fees and expenses must be paid.

How Are Fees Paid?

All fees payable to Spence-Chapin are payable via check, credit card, debit card, money order, or in rare cases, where approved by Spence-Chapin, via wire. Third party fees are outlined in Addendum A and each third-party vendor establishes its own method of payment.

What’s In This Document?

The body of this document outlines when fees to Spence-Chapin are due and what services are encompassed within the fees to Spence-Chapin, and also provides information about ways to defray costs including information on how fee waivers and reductions are assessed.

Addendum A, at the end of this document is the Expense Breakdown for this program. The Expense Breakdown describes the totality of anticipated expenses in the adoption process and outlines not only fees payable to Spence-Chapin but also details third-party and travel fees that are reasonably anticipated.

Addendum B is entitled “Acknowledgement of Understanding Fees.” All clients will be required to sign Addendum B and have the opportunity to ask any questions before signing.

Addendum C is the Fee Schedule of fees payable to Spence-Chapin; all clients will be required to sign Addendum C and have the opportunity to ask questions before signing.

Addendum D is called “Notice of Unanticipated Expenses;” we are required by regulation to provide this notice and to ask that you make a selection on this document. All clients will be required to sign Addendum D and have the opportunity to ask any questions before signing.

What Types of Fees Will I Incur?

Fees within the adoption process can broadly be broken into the following categories:

1. Home Study

A home study is required by state and federal law. It is a process of assessing your family’s suitability and eligibility to adopt. As a Local Family, Spence-Chapin will provide your home study and any subsequent home study update per the fee schedule noted in both Addendum A and Addendum C.

2. Adoption Expenses in the United States

This includes, but is not limited to, costs for personnel, administrative overhead, communications, any other costs related to providing adoption services (generally referred to as Spence-Chapin's "professional services fees"), legal services, training/education, and other costs related to providing adoption services in the United States. Spence-Chapin's Professional Services Fees² for this program are $8,815 plus a $300 application fee. Federal regulations require that all families complete training before adopting, including families who are adopted children who are related to them or known to them. You will receive training from third-party providers (such as Adoption Learning Partners, Creating a Family, or Foster Parent College); the anticipated cost for these trainings is detailed in Addendum A.

¹ “Local Families” are families who resides inside of New York or New Jersey, and within 100 miles of Spence-Chapin’s Manhattan office; Spence-Chapin considers the entirety of Long Island as within its local service area. These families are working with Spence-Chapin as their primary provider and for home study and post-placement/post-adoption reporting.

3. Foreign country program fees

This refers to the expenses related to all adoption services that will be provided in the child's country of origin and includes, but is not limited to, the costs of personnel, administrative overhead, training and education, legal services, communications, and other costs related to providing adoption services in the child's country of origin. See Addendum A. Where a program has a country-program fee, this fee is refundable in accordance with Spence-Chapin's refund policy.

4. Care of the child

This describes the expected total fees and estimated expenses charged to prospective adoptive parents for the care of the child in the country of origin prior to adoption, including but not limited to, costs of food, clothing, shelter, medical care, foster care services, orphanage care, and any other services provided directly to the child. See Addendum A.

5. Translation and document expenses

This includes the expected total fees and estimated expenses for obtaining any necessary documents and for any translation of documents related to the adoption. This includes, but is not limited to, costs for obtaining, translating or copying records or documents required to complete the adoption, costs for the child's court documents, passport, adoption certificate and other documents related to the adoption as well as costs for notarizations and certifications. See Addendum A.

6. Contributions

This includes any fixed contribution amount or percentage that the prospective adoptive parent(s) will be expected or required to make to the child protection or child welfare service programs in the child's country of origin or in the United States. An explanation of the use of the contribution will be provided. None of Spence-Chapin's programs include a contribution.

7. Post-Placement/Post-Adoption Reports

This represents the expected total fees and estimated expenses for any post-placement/post-adoption visits and reports as required by Spence-Chapin, by your state of residence, and/or by the country of origin. See Addendum A.

8. Third Party Fees

This includes, but is not limited to, fees to United States Citizenship and Immigration services, to attorneys (if applicable), and to governmental bodies for processing fees. See Addendum A for program-specific expense estimates for this category. Third party fees are not controlled by Spence-Chapin and may be subject to change without notice.

² Spence-Chapin's Professional Service Fees are separate from home study and post-placement/post-adoption reporting fees pursuant to regulations governing fee breakdown explanations (22 CFR 96.40). If you have any questions, please contact Spence-Chapin's International Adoption Department.

9. Travel and accommodation expenses

This includes the expected total fees and estimated expenses for any travel, transportation and accommodations for prospective adoptive parent(s). See Addendum A. Clients are responsible for all travel expenses for themselves and the adopted child(ren); travel fees are subject to change and are never in the control of Spence-Chapin.

10. Medical Expenses

Throughout the adoption process you will incur medical expenses related to the child(ren) you are adopting and related to medical expenses for you as the adoptive applicant(s) and any other member of your household for whom a medical report is required for home study and/or dossier. These two types of medical expenses are described below:

a. For the adoptive child(ren) – See Addendum A for cost estimates. Adoptive families may be required to have a (local) physician with expertise in evaluating foreign medical records to review the records of the prospective adoptive child before accepting a referral. Client(s) is responsible for costs related to this consultation. This cost should be paid directly to the physician conducting the review. In addition, the US Department of State requires a medical exam before issuing the child a visa. Adoptive families should anticipate medical expenses for the initial examination of the adoptive child and for any necessary vaccines and/or treatment of medical concerns. Fees vary based on country and child's needs, again see Addendum A for cost estimates. These fees are paid to a physician in the child's country of origin who is approved to provide immigration exams.

b. For adoptive applicants and household members – Adoptive applicants and all household members are required to get a medical examination as part of the home study process and/or dossier process. Ongoing requirements for updated medicals may apply based on country and state requirements. In addition, Spence-Chapin strongly encourages clients to comply with the Center for Disease Control's recommendations for pre-travel check-ups, vaccinations, etc., which may cause clients to incur additional medical expenses.

11. Special Services

No part of Spence-Chapin's professional services fees are used to fund any separate program or provide any special services such as cultural programs for adoptee(s), scholarships, or other services.

Procedures for Transferring Funds to Foreign Countries

Where possible, any fees owed to foreign providers must be paid through Spence-Chapin. Upon receipt of an invoice from Spence-Chapin's foreign supervised provider, Spence-Chapin will invoice the client for the amount requested. The client will be asked to pay funds to Spence-Chapin and Spence-Chapin will wire the funds to its foreign supervised provider. These processes are in place to minimize, if not eliminate, the need for prospective adoptive parents to pay for adoption services in the country of origin via cash. If prospective adoptive parents are asked to make any unexpected cash payment within the country of origin, they shall immediately inform Spence-Chapin's Chief Program Officer of International Adoption so that determination can be made about the appropriateness of the cash payment. Any fees outlined in Addendum A which are categorized as Country Program Fees must be paid through Spence-Chapin as pass-through fees. These fees are subject to Spence-Chapin's refund policy whenever services paid for are not rendered.

Fee Increases

Spence-Chapin will not increase any fees paid to Spence-Chapin during a client's adoption process

(i.e. from signing the Adoption Agreement to completion of Post-Adoption reporting). Country fees or fees to third parties (such as USCIS), however, may change without prior notice to Spence-Chapin or the client. In the event that additional fees and expenses are incurred in the country of origin or by third parties, those fees and expenses will only be passed on to the client under the following circumstances:

- i. With notice: whenever possible, Spence-Chapin will disclose any additional fees and/or fee increases to clients in writing prior to a fee change; or
- ii. Without notice: under very limited and urgent circumstances, such as in a case where a child needs emergency medical services, Spence-Chapin may be required to make a decision as to whether or not to incur costs and expenses on behalf of and for reimbursement by the clients. Whenever possible, Spence-Chapin will attempt to give notice and obtain consent for additional costs and expenses before they are incurred. All clients will be required to sign a Notice of Unanticipated Expenses (Addendum D) at the beginning of the adoption process, so that in the event of emergency expenses, Spence-Chapin will be prepared to act in accordance with the clients' expectations.

Spence-Chapin provides receipts to the prospective adoptive parent(s) for fees and expenses paid directly by the agency in the foreign country and keeps copies of such receipts.

Refund Policy

Refunds are available for Spence-Chapin's Professional Service Fees and Foreign Country Program Fees whenever services are not rendered and will be granted within sixty (60) days of the completion of the delivery of services. Refunds will be issued by check. Fees to Spence-Chapin are payable in installments; each installment covers the costs of services happening at that stage of the process. Refunds are available on a pro-rated basis for services not rendered. The prorating is described within each installment description below.

Description of Professional Services Fees and Refund Schedule

Application Fee ($300)

This fee covers the cost of an in-depth intake to gain preliminary information on whether the child(ren) you hope to adopt appears to meet eligibility criteria established by USCIS; application review by a multidisciplinary taskforce; any communication(s) needed with foreign partners such as pre-screening for eligibility; program-specific assessment of the applicant(s)'s eligibility, etc. This fee is non-refundable once the multidisciplinary taskforce has reviewed your application.

First Installment ($2,815)

This fee is applicable to all clients whose application is approved and is due at the time of submitting a signed Adoption Agreement. Signing of the Adoption Agreement by Spence-Chapin and the client(s) constitutes acceptance into the program. This fee covers the cost of program orientation and any follow-up questions, consultations and discussions relating to the Adoption Agreement; personnel, administrative and operational expenses; case management; case reporting for monitoring to the Accrediting Entity designated by the Department of State. Following receipt of this installment, Spence-Chapin must then render payment of $815 per new case to the Center for Excellence in Adoption Services ("CEAS"), which is the Accrediting Entity designated by the US Department of State to oversee Spence-Chapin.

Pro-Rated Refund Policy for the First Installment

At the point of payment, the following services will have already been completed: program orientation, client consults, and program entry communications, case management, case planning and conferencing among Spence-Chapin's program team, and adoption agreement review. Therefore, of this installment, $2,000 is non-refundable as it covers the services described here as having already been completed. However, case reporting to CEAS for monitoring and compliance purposes occurs within 48 hours of receipt of the Adoption Agreement and the payment above. In the event that a client withdraws prior to this reporting requirement, the client will be refunded the $815; such refund is given automatically and within sixty (60) days.

Second Installment ($3,000)

This fee installment is due at the completion of home study and covers the following:

1. Service planning which includes review and execution of a written Service Plan.
2. Case-specific parent-preparation and training plan to ensure that training is appropriate to the anticipated impact of adoption based in your family composition and child request.
3. Communication with in-country representative, to ensure timely transmission of information about your case status and any information that might impact your adoption process.

Pro-Rated Refund Policy for the Second Installment

Because this fee is collected upon completion of your home study, all of the above-described services will have been completed prior to payment. Therefore, this fee installment is non-refundable.

Third Installment ($3,000³)

This installment fee is due at upon scheduling of court hearing in the child's birth country. This fee covers:

1. Guidance through the I-600A filing with USCIS, including review of immigration paperwork, and if necessary, assistance with any Requests for Evidence as issued by USCIS and/or any other issues with the immigration office
2. Dossier document gathering, review, guidance, and submission to the country-of-origin
3. Communication with the Competent Authority in the child's country-of-origin and coordination of case processes in-country
4. Review of the referral/child background report by Spence-Chapin's multi-disciplinary review team to assess whether the documentation presented appears to sufficiently comply with the requirements established by federal regulations in the United States, and requests for further reports or information as needed.
5. Upon receipt of the child background report, Spence-Chapin crafts a child-specific training plan to prepare you as much as possible for the adoption of the identified child(ren).
6. Support while you are in-country for the adoption/custody hearing; such support includes access to Spence-Chapin social workers for coaching and coordination of appointments in-country.
7. Guidance through the I-600 filing with USCIS, including review of the immigration paperwork, submission to USCIS, and if necessary, assistance with any Requests for Evidence as issued by USCIS and/or other issues with the immigration office

Pro-Rated Refund Policy for Third Installment

Because this fee is collected at the time that the court hearing for adoption or custody is scheduled in the child's country-of-origin, items 1-5 above will have already been rendered before payment is collected and therefore are non-refundable. If for any reason you discontinue the adoption process after paying the third installment but before traveling to the country for the adoption or custody hearing, item 6 above is refundable at a rate of $500. If for any reason you discontinue the adoption process after paying the third installment but before filing the I-600, item 7 above is refundable at a rate of $250.

³ The fee of $3,000 is for families adopting one child. If you are adopting more than one child, an additional $815 per additional child after the first child will be charged. This is because in cases in which a family adopts multiple children, Spence-Chapin must render $815 per additional child beyond one child to CEAS. If you discontinue the adoption process for any reason after the payment of this third installment but before Spence-Chapin must file the reporting of an additional child to CEAS, the $815 per additional child will be refunded to you within sixty (60) days.

Description of Direct Services Fees and Pro-Rated Refund Schedule

Home Study Fee ($1,700)

A home study is required by state and federal regulations. The primary components of a home study include: paperwork collection, interview(s), and writing the home study report.

Pro-Rated Refund Policy of Home Study Fee

Because the home study contains three primary components – paperwork collection, interview(s), and writing the home study report – the pro-rated refund schedule is broken into thirds as follows:

- If you discontinue home study after commencing paperwork but prior to interview(s) a refund of two-thirds ($1,133.33) will be rendered.
- If you discontinue the home study after one or more interviews but prior to the report being drafted, a refund of one-third ($566.67) will be rendered.
- If you discontinue the home study after the report has been drafted – whether or not the report is signed – no refund will be available.

Home Study Update Fee ($1,000)

A home study update consists of three primary components: paperwork collection, interview(s), and writing the home study report.

Pro-Rated Refund Policy of Home Study Update Fee

Because the home study update contains three primary components – paperwork collection, interview(s), and writing the home study report – the pro-rated refund schedule is broken into thirds as follows:

- If you discontinue home study update after commencing paperwork but prior to interview(s) a refund of two-thirds ($666.67) will be rendered.
- If you discontinue the home study update after one or more interviews but prior to the report being drafted, a refund of one-third ($333.33) will be rendered.
- If you discontinue the home study update after the report has been drafted – whether or not the report is signed – no refund will be available.

Post-Placement/Post-Adoption Reporting ($450 per visit with report)

Post-placement/post-adoption visits and reporting are required by the laws of your state, the laws of the birth country, and social work best practice in supporting new families.

Pro-Rated Refund Policy of Post-Placement/Post-Adoption Reporting

No refund is offered for required visits as compliance with these visits is required by regulation; rather than offer a refund for non-compliance, Spence-Chapin will take appropriate measures to ensure a family completes the required visits, such as making an unannounced visit if a family refuses to schedule. However, if a family has pre-paid for post-placement/post-adoption visits with Spence-Chapin but subsequently moves out of Spence-Chapin's service area, pre-paid but unused post-placement/post-adoption visits will be refunded upon the family securing a new local agency to complete those visits.

WAYS TO DEFRAY COSTS

Spence-Chapin makes every effort to help reduce financial barriers for families wanting to adopt. Spence-Chapin's professional services fees are broken to installments reflective of the services being rendered at that stage in the process. Spence-Chapin assesses fee waivers and reductions based on what services are required to be rendered on the case; for example, for clients who initiated their adoption process with another Adoption Service Provider and then transfer to Spence-Chapin, Spence-Chapin will assess the fee schedule based on what services Spence-Chapin must render on the case and will waive any fees for services that Spence-Chapin does not have to render based on milestones achieved in the case prior to transfer to Spence-Chapin.

Income-based financial aid can be assessed on a case-by-case basis.

Below is a non-exhaustive list of financial resources Spence-Chapin families have utilized in the past. Inclusion in the list is for informational purposes only and does not indicate endorsement.

Your Adoption Finance Coach* – Spence-Chapin collaborates with “Your Adoption Finance Coach,” an organization that provides financial resources and coaching to adoptive families. Spence-Chapin’s clients have free access to this service and can find out about it on the Spence-Chapin website or by contacting an adoption team member at info@spence-chapin.org or 212-369-0300.

Adoption Tax Credit* (www.adoptiontaxcredit.org) – The adoption tax credit, which can be claimed for eligible adoption-related expenses, has helped thousands of American families offset the high cost of adoption since the credit was established in 1997. The credit applies to all types of adoption (except stepparent adoption), including international, private domestic, and foster care. Speak to your accountant, Your Adoption Finance Coach, or an attorney for more information.

Employer Adoption Benefits* – A family’s employer may offer adoption funds as a part of their benefits. Please refer to Dave Thomas Foundation for a list of companies providing adoption benefits: <http://www.davethomasfoundation.org> or contact your HR department.

Helpusadopt.org* – Founded by two adoptive parents, helpusadopt.org provides the opportunity for families to apply for adoption grants for specific costs (i.e. program fees).

Resources4adoption* (www.resouces4adoption.com) – Provides adoption financing education, information, resources and tools for prospective adoptive families.

Second Installment of Professional Services Fee	Due at completion of home study	$3,000	Spence-Chapin
Third Installment of Professional Services Fees	Due upon scheduling of court hearing in Antigua & Barbuda	$3,000 ¹	Spence-Chapin
Home Study
Home Study Fee	Due prior to scheduling the first home study visit	$1,700	Spence-Chapin/Home Study Provider
Home Study Update	This fee is payable only when a home study update is required for your case. The fee is $1,000 per home study update. Some families may never require a home study update and other families may require multiple home study updates. This fee is payable upon commencement of paperwork for a home study update.	$1,000	Spence-Chapin
Post-Placement/ Post-Adoption Reports
Post-Placement/Post-Adoption Reporting/Visits	If you are granted a provisional adoption order in Antigua & Barbuda, 12 months of supervision will be required, necessitating at least quarterly post-placement visits/reports. More visits/reports may be required based on your state of residence. ² In cases where a family receives a final adoption order, one post-adoption visit will be required. Each visit is at a fee of $450. Upon approval of I600, families will pay for the number of post-placement visits required based on the facts of their case.	$450 per visit	Spence-Chapin
Third Party Fee Estimates*
Parent Preparation and Training	Online training courses required under federal regulation and additional training as assigned by Spence-Chapin	$210-$300	Third Party Training Course
Immigration Documentation: USCIS Filings (I-600A, and I-600) and Biometrics (fingerprinting) fees per USCIS	Paid to USCIS upon submission of I-600A or submission of I-600. USCIS's fee schedule can be viewed here: https://www.uscis.gov/sites/default/files/document/forms/g-1055.pdf	$920-$1,375 ³	Third Party - USCIS (US Citizenship and Immigration Services)
Immigration and Documentation Fees Subsequent to Approval of I-600 Form	These fees include document expenses including but not limited to the child's visa ($325 USD payable to the US Embassy/Consulate), immigration medical appointment(s) (approx. $100 USD payable to panel physician approved by US Embassy), child's passport (approx. $40 USD). Additional fees may apply.	$465-$510 ⁴	Third Parties - Physicians, Passport Office, U.S. Consulate/Embassy

¹ The stated fee of $3,000 is for families adopting a single child. For families adopting more than one child, an additional $815 will be due per child beyond one child because in cases in which a family adopts multiple children, Spence-Chapin must render $815 per additional child beyond one child to CEAS.

² If you are given a provisional order and, if you live in New Jersey, New Jersey requires a minimum of 4 visits within 6 months (the first of which must be within 14 days of homecoming) then quarterly until finalization for children under 5 years. For children 5 years and older New Jersey requires a minimum of 6 visits within 6 months (the first of which must be within 14 days of homecoming) then bimonthly until finalization.

⁴ Estimated range is per child; if adopting multiple children, multiply by the number of children

¹ $815 of the first installment covers costs and fees for case Monitoring and Oversight by Spence-Chapin's accrediting entity, Center for Excellence in Adoption Services ("CEAS"). Case reporting to CEAS for monitoring and compliance purposes occurs within 48 hours of receipt of the Adoption Agreement and the payment above. In the event that a client withdraws prior to this reporting requirement, the client will be refunded the $815.

² The stated fee of $3,000 is for families adopting a single child. For families adopting more than one child, an additional $815 will be due per child beyond one child because in cases in which a family adopts multiple children, Spence-Chapin must render $815 per additional child beyond one child to CEAS.

³ Upon approval of I600, you will pay for the number of post-placement/post-adoption visits required based on the facts of your case. In cases where you receive a final adoption order, one post-adoption visit will be required. If you are granted a provisional adoption order in Antigua & Barbuda, 12 months of supervision will be required, necessitating quarterly post-placement visits/reports. However, if you are granted a provisional adoption order and live in New Jersey, New Jersey has greater post-placement requirements as follows: a minimum of 4 visits within 6 months (the first of which must be within 14 days of homecoming) then quarterly until finalization for children under 5 years; for children 5 years and older New Jersey requires a minimum of 6 visits within 6 months (the first of which must be within 14 days of homecoming) then bimonthly until finalization.

NOTICE OF UNANTICIPATED EXPENSES
Addendum D

Under very limited and urgent circumstances, Spence-Chapin may be required to make a decision as to whether or not to incur extraordinary costs on behalf of and for reimbursement by the Adoptive Parent(s) for unanticipated expenses. Whenever possible, Spence-Chapin will attempt to give notice and obtain consent for additional costs and expenses before they are incurred. However, it is not always possible to reach the Adoptive Parent(s) within the time frame required to make a decision. Where these costs and expenses do not exceed the amount of $1,000.00, Spence-Chapin may consent to increased costs and expenses without further notice to you as the prospective adoptive parent(s).

WAIVER OF NOTICE AND CONSENT

I/we have reviewed the above Notice of Unanticipated Expenses and understand that under emergency and extraordinary circumstances, where it is not possible to obtain my consent, Spence-Chapin may incur costs and expenses on my/our behalf, in an amount less than or equal to $1,000.00, without preauthorization from me. In the event of additional costs and expenses that exceed the amount of $1,000.00, I direct Spence-Chapin as follows:

- I/we hereby authorize Spence-Chapin to incur costs and expenses in excess of $1,000.00 on my/our behalf, without advance authorization from me/us, if, despite reasonable efforts, Spence-Chapin is unable to provide advance notice to me/us within the time allotted.
- I/we have reviewed the above Notice of Unanticipated Expenses and, I/WE DO NOT authorize Spence-Chapin to incur costs and expenses in excess of $1,000.00 on my/our behalf, without advance notice and my/our express permission.
- I/we have reviewed the above Notice of Unanticipated Expenses, and I/WE DO NOT authorize Spence-Chapin to incur any costs or expenses on my/our behalf without advance notice and my/our express permission.
