(Attachment A)

Overview

Spence-Chapin Services to Families and Children (“Spence-Chapin”) is a not-for-profit agency that relies on a combination of fees, grants and fundraising to support its work in intercountry adoption

This document is available to the general public, including prospective adoptive parents, prior to application. This document provides a written schedule of expected total fees, estimated expenses, and an explanation of the conditions under which fees or expenses may be charged, waived, modified, or refunded. This document outlines when and how the fees and expenses must be paid.

How Are Fees Paid?

All fees payable to Spence-Chapin are payable via check, credit card, debit card, money order, or in rare cases, where approved by Spence-Chapin, via wire. Third party fees are outlined in Addendum A and each third-party vendor establishes its own method of payment.

What’s In This Document?

The body of this document outlines when fees to Spence-Chapin are due and what services are encompassed within the fees to Spence-Chapin, and also provides information about ways to defray costs including information on how fee waivers and reductions are assessed.

Addendum A, at the end of this document is the Expense Breakdown for this program. The Expense Breakdown describes the totality of anticipated expenses in the adoption process and outlines not only fees payable to Spence-Chapin but also details third-party and travel fees that are reasonably anticipated.

Addendum B is entitled “Acknowledgement of Understanding Fees.” All clients will be required to sign Addendum B and have the opportunity to ask any questions before signing.

Addendum C is the Fee Schedule of fees payable to Spence-Chapin; all clients will be required to sign Addendum C and have the opportunity to ask questions before signing.

Addendum D is called “Notice of Unanticipated Expenses;” we are required by regulation to provide this notice and to ask that you make a selection on this document. All clients will be required to sign Addendum D and have the opportunity to ask any questions before signing.

What Types of Fees Will I Incur?

Fees within the adoption process can broadly be broken into the following categories:

1. Home Study

A home study is required by state and federal law. It is a process of assessing your family’s suitability and eligibility to adopt. As a Local Family, Spence-Chapin will provide your home study and any subsequent home study update per the fee schedule noted in both Addendum A and Addendum C.

2. Adoption Expenses in the United States

This includes, but is not limited to, costs for personnel, administrative overhead, communications, any other costs related to providing adoption services (generally referred to as

<sup>1</sup> “Local Families” are families who reside inside of New York or New Jersey, and within 100 miles of Spence-Chapin’s Manhattan office; Spence-Chapin considers the entirety of Long Island as within its local service areas. These families are working with Spence-Chapin as their primary provider and for home study and post-placement/post-adoption reporting.

Spence-Chapin’s “professional services fees”), legal services, training/education, and other costs related to providing adoption services in the United States. Spence-Chapin’s Professional Services Fees for this program are $14,815<sup>2</sup> plus a $300 application fee<sup>3</sup>. Federal regulations require that all families complete training before adopting, including families who are adopted children who are related to them or known to them. You will receive training from third-party providers (such as Adoption Learning Partners, Creating a Family, or Foster Parent College); additionally, your local home study agency might have a separate fee for parent preparation and training; the anticipated cost for these trainings is detailed in Addendum A.

3. Foreign country program fees

This refers to the expenses related to all adoption services that will be provided in the child’s country of origin and includes, but is not limited to, the costs of personnel, administrative overhead, training and education, legal services, communications, and other costs related to providing adoption services in the child’s country of origin. See Addendum A. Where a program has a country-program fee, this fee is refundable in accordance with Spence-Chapin's refund policy.

4. Care of the child

This describes the expected total fees and estimated expenses charged to prospective adoptive parents for the care of the child in the country of origin prior to adoption, including but not limited to, costs of food, clothing, shelter, medical care, foster care services, orphanage care, and any other services provided directly to the child.

5. Translation and document expenses

This includes the expected total fees and estimated expenses for obtaining any necessary documents and for any translation of documents related to the adoption. This includes, but is not limited to, costs for obtaining, translating or copying records or documents required to complete the adoption, costs for the child’s court documents, passport, adoption certificate and other documents related to the adoption as well as costs for notarizations and certifications. See Addendum A.

6. Contributions

This includes any fixed contribution amount or percentage that the prospective adoptive parent(s) will be expected or required to make to the child protection or child welfare service programs in the child’s country of origin or in the United States. An explanation of the use of the contribution will be provided. None of Spence-Chapin's programs include a contribution.

7. Post-Placement/Post-Adoption Reports

This represents the expected total fees and estimated expenses for any post-placement/post-adoption visits and reports as required by Spence-Chapin, by your state of residence, and/or by the country of origin. See Addendum A.

8. Third Party Fees

<sup>2</sup> Spence-Chapin’s Professional Service Fees are separate from home study and post-placement/post-adoption reporting fees pursuant to regulations governing fee breakdown explanations (22 CFR 96.40). As noted in Addendum A and Addendum C, Spence-Chapin’s home study fee is an additional $2,500; Spence-Chapin does not charge a fee for any subsequent home study update. As noted in Addendum A and Addendum C, Spence-Chapin charges a flat fee of $500 for post-adoption reporting fees which is payable at the same time as the fifth installment of Spence-Chapin’s Professional Services Fee. If you have any questions, please contact Spence-Chapin’s International Adoption Department.

<sup>3</sup> The stated fee is for families adopting a single child. For families adopting more than one child, an additional $815 will be due per child beyond one child because in cases in which a family adopts multiple children, Spence-Chapin must render $815 per additional child beyond one child to CEAS.

This includes, but is not limited to, fees to United States Citizenship and Immigration services, to attorneys (if applicable), and to governmental bodies for processing fees. See Addendum A, at the end of this document for program-specific expense estimates for this category. Third party fees are not controlled by Spence-Chapin and may be subject to change without notice.

9. Travel and accommodation expenses

This includes the expected total fees and estimated expenses for any travel, transportation and accommodations for prospective adoptive parent(s). See Addendum A. Clients are responsible for all travel expenses for themselves and the adopted child(ren); travel fees are subject to change and are never in the control of Spence-Chapin.

10. Medical Expenses

Throughout the adoption process you will incur medical expenses related to the child(ren) you are adopting and related to medical expenses for you as the adoptive applicant(s) and any other member of your household for whom a medical report is required for home study and/or dossier. These two types of medical expenses are described below:

a. For the adoptive child(ren) – See Addendum A for cost estimates. Adoptive families may be required to have a (local) physician with expertise in evaluating foreign medical records to review the records of the prospective adoptive child before accepting a referral. Client(s) is responsible for costs related to this consultation. This cost should be paid directly to the physician conducting the review. In addition, the US Department of State requires a medical exam before issuing the child a visa.

Adoptive families should anticipate medical expenses for the initial examination of the adoptive child and for any necessary vaccines and/or treatment of medical concerns. Fees vary based on country and child's needs, again see Addendum A for cost estimates. These fees are paid to a physician in the child's country of origin who is approved to provide immigration exams.

b. For adoptive applicants and household members – Adoptive applicants and all household members are required to get a medical examination as part of the home study process and/or dossier process. Ongoing requirements for updated medicals may apply based on country and state requirements. In addition, Spence-Chapin strongly encourages clients to comply with the Center for Disease Control's recommendations for pre-travel check-ups, vaccinations, etc., which may cause clients to incur additional medical expenses.

11. Special Services

No part of Spence-Chapin's professional services fees are used to fund any separate program or provide any special services such as cultural programs for adoptee(s), scholarships, or other services.

Procedures for Transferring Funds to Foreign Countries

Where possible, any fees owed to foreign providers must be paid through Spence-Chapin. Upon receipt of an invoice from Spence-Chapin's foreign supervised provider, Spence-Chapin will invoice the client for the amount requested. The client will be asked to pay funds to Spence-Chapin and Spence-Chapin will wire the funds to its foreign supervised provider. These processes are in place to minimize, if not eliminate, the need for prospective adoptive parents to pay for adoption services in the country of origin via cash. If prospective adoptive parents are asked to make any unexpected cash payment within the country of origin, they shall immediately inform Spence-Chapin's Chief Program Officer of International Adoption so that determination can be made about the appropriateness of the cash payment. Any fees outlined in Addendum A which are categorized as Country Program Fees must be paid through Spence-Chapin as pass-through fees. These fees are subject to Spence-Chapin's refund policy whenever services paid for are not rendered.

Fee Increases

Spence-Chapin will not increase any fees paid to Spence-Chapin during a client's adoption process (i.e. from signing the Adoption Agreement to completion of Post-Adoption reporting). Country fees or fees to third parties (such as USCIS), however, may change without prior notice to Spence-Chapin or the client. In the event that additional fees and expenses are incurred in the country of origin or by third parties, those fees and expenses will only be passed on to the client under the following circumstances:

- i. With notice: whenever possible, Spence-Chapin will disclose any additional fees and/or fee increases to clients in writing prior to a fee change; or
- ii. Without notice: under very limited and urgent circumstances, such as in a case where a child needs emergency medical services, Spence-Chapin may be required to make a decision as to whether or not to incur costs and expenses on behalf of and for reimbursement by the clients. Whenever possible, Spence-Chapin will attempt to give notice and obtain consent for additional costs and expenses before they are incurred. All clients will be required to sign a Notice of Unanticipated Expenses (Addendum D) at the beginning of the adoption process, so that in the event of emergency expenses, Spence-Chapin will be prepared to act in accordance with the clients' expectations.

Spence-Chapin provides receipts to the prospective adoptive parent(s) for fees and expenses paid directly by the agency in the foreign country and keeps copies of such receipts.

Refund Policy

Refunds are available for Spence-Chapin's Professional Service Fees, Home Study Fees and Post-Placement/Post-Adoption Reporting Fees, and Foreign Country Program Fees whenever services are not rendered and will be granted within sixty (60) days of the completion of the delivery of services. Refunds will be issued by check. Fees to Spence-Chapin are payable in installments; each installment covers the costs of services happening at that stage of the process. Refunds are available on a pro-rated basis for services not rendered. The prorating is described within each installment description below.

NON-IDENTIFIED PLACEMENT PROGRAM, CARIBBEAN
Local Families
Description of Professional Services Fees and Refund Schedule

Application Fee ($300)

This fee covers the cost of an in-depth intake to gain preliminary information on eligibility and preliminary suitability for the country program, application review by a multidisciplinary taskforce; any communication(s) needed with foreign partners such as pre-screening for eligibility; program-specific assessment of the applicant(s)'s eligibility, etc. This fee is non-refundable once the multidisciplinary taskforce has reviewed your application.

First Installment ($2,815)

This fee is applicable to all clients whose application is approved and is due at the time of submitting a signed Adoption Agreement. Signing of the Adoption Agreement by Spence-Chapin and the client(s) constitutes acceptance into the program. This fee covers the cost of program orientation and any follow-up questions, consultations and discussions relating to the Adoption Agreement; personnel, administrative and operational expenses; case management; case reporting for monitoring to the Accrediting Entity designated by the Department of State. Following receipt of this installment, Spence-Chapin must then render payment of $815 per new case to the Center for Excellence in Adoption Services ("CEAS"), which is the Accrediting Entity designated by the US Department of State to oversee Spence-Chapin.

Pro-Rated Refund Policy for the First Installment

At the point of payment, the following services will have already been completed: program orientation, client consults, and program entry communications, case management, case planning and conferencing among Spence-Chapin's program team, and adoption agreement review. Therefore, of this installment, $2,000 is non-refundable as it covers the services described here as having already been completed. However, case reporting to CEAS for monitoring and compliance purposes typically occurs within 48 hours of receipt of the Adoption Agreement and the payment above. In the event that a client withdraws prior to this reporting requirement, the client will be refunded the $815; such refund is given automatically and within sixty (60) days.

Second Installment Local Families ($4,000)

This fee installment is due upon completion of Spence-Chapin facilitated trainings and covers the following services:

1. Parent preparation trainings facilitated live by Spence-Chapin staff; this training is provided in seven live modules covering topics which include but are not limited to: attachment, trauma, grief/loss, discipline and behavior management, transracial parenthood, talking about adoption and the impact of adoption on child development and identity development. Additionally, during the training series, Spence-Chapin brings in a pediatrician who is an expert in international adoption medicine to facilitate a module on common medical needs. The training also encompasses a moderated panel of parents who are parenting through international adoption to discuss adjustment challenges, bonding/attachment issues, share experiences of travel, and navigating post-adoption resources. Following completion of the training, Spence-Chapin staff are available to meet with the family to discuss their experience learning about adoption themes, discuss how the training may have informed their child request characteristics, assess further training needs, and plan next-steps in their adoption process.
2. Service planning which includes review and execution of a written Service Plan.

Pro-Rated Refund Policy for the Second Installment

Because this fee is collected upon completion of Spence-Chapin facilitated trainings, there is not a scenario in which a client(s) would have paid for the training and not received that service, so item 1 of this fee is non-refundable. Additionally, case service planning and an executed Service

Plan will occur in all cases before a client's attendance at the trainings and therefore, again no scenario would exist in which a client has submitted this installment but not received case service planning, so item 2 of this fee is non-refundable.

Home Study Fee Local Families ($2,500)

This installment fee is applicable to local families and is due prior to scheduling of initial home study interview. This fee covers the cost of the home study process as conducted by Spence-Chapin, including documentation collection/review/guidance, interviews with a home study worker, and completion of the written home study report.

Pro-Rated Refund Policy for Home Study Fee

The home study process contains three principle steps – paperwork collection and review, interviews with a home study preparer, and writing the written home study report. Each of these principle steps represents one-third of the home study process, at a value of $833.33. All documentation collection and review is completed before this fee installment is charged and therefore the pro-rated amount of $833.33 for paperwork collection and review is non-refundable as the service will have been rendered in-full before this fee installment is paid. If a client pays Home Study Fee prior to scheduling initial home study interview and then withdraws prior to the holding of the interview, a pro-rated refund of $1,666.66 will be rendered within sixty (60) days. If a client pays the Home Study Fee and withdraws at any time subsequent to one or more home study interviews being held but prior to the writing of the home study draft, a pro-rated refund of $833.33 will be rendered within sixty (60) days. Once the home study draft is written, this fee is non-refundable.

Third Installment Families ($3,000)

This installment fee is due upon submission of I-600A. This fee covers:

1. Guidance through the I-600A immigration process, including review of immigration paperwork, submission to USCIS, and if necessary, assistance with any Requests for Evidence as issued by USCIS and/or any other issues with the immigration office. Spence-Chapin does not charge additional professional services fees for supporting families in any filing of home study updates with USCIS or requests for extension on the I-600A.
2. Communication with Foreign Supervised Provider and/or Competent Authority.

Pro-Rated Refund Policy for Third Installment

Because this fee is collected at the time of I-600A submission, all services outlined in this fee installment will have been rendered before the fee is collected; therefore, those fees are non-refundable.

Fourth Installment for Families ($3,000)

This fee installment is due upon Commitment to Travel for Trip 1. This fee covers:

1. Review of the referral/child background report by Spence-Chapin's multi-disciplinary review team to assess whether the documentation presented appears to sufficiently comply with the requirements established by federal regulations in the United States, and requests for further reports or information as needed.
2. Using reasonable efforts in the child's country of origin to obtain additional available medical, social, and legal information on a child.
3. Travel arrangement support and preparation for trip 1.
4. Support while you are in-country for the bonding and integration period; such support includes access to Spence-Chapin social workers for coaching and coordination of appointments in-country.

Pro-Rated Refund Policy for Fourth Installment

Since this fee is paid upon Commitment to Travel, items 1-3 above will have been rendered and are non-refundable. If a family withdraws prior to travel for the first trip but subsequent to the payment of this installment, a pro-rated refund will be handled as follows, based in the first or second scenario described below as applicable:

- Scenario 1: Family withdraws prior to travel for Trip 1 but remains eligible and suitable for the program and chooses to await another referral: In this scenario, this Fourth Installment will be credited to the services rendered in connection to the acceptance of a future referral, provided the client(s) remains suitable and eligible to adopt and that the client(s) chooses to continue pursuing adoption in a Spence-Chapin International Adoption Program.
- Scenario 2: Family withdraws prior to Trip 1 and discontinues pursuit of adoption with Spence-Chapin: In this scenario, this Fourth Installment will be refunded on a pro-rated basis of $1,000 as item 4 of this Fourth Installment will not yet have been rendered.

If a family withdraws during or after Trip 1, the fourth installment is fully non-refundable.

Fifth Installment for Families + Post-Adoption Reporting Fee ($2,500) <sup>4</sup>

This fee installment is due within 14 days of returning from trip 1. This fee covers:

1. Preparation of acceptance of referral documents.
2. Guidance through I-600 filing with USCIS, including review of immigration paperwork, submission to USCIS, guidance through visa application process and if necessary, assistance with any Requests for Evidence as issued by USCIS and/or other issues with the immigration office.
3. Coordination of travel arrangements for the final trip.
4. Services rendered in coordination of visa hearing and issuance.
5. Coordination of documents for court finalization.
6. Of this $2,500, $500 represents allocation for post-adoption reporting by Spence-Chapin in accordance with state/country law.
7. Oversight and support during the post-adoption reporting period, including check-ins with Spence-Chapin's International Program Team to provide support around child/family adjustment and around documentation follow up needs (such as social security cards, Certificates of Citizenship etc.).

Pro-Rated Refund Policy for Fifth Installment

Spence-Chapin prepares Acceptance of Referral documents within 14 days of returning from Trip 1; therefore, item 1 above is non-refundable.

If a family withdraws acceptance of referral before submission of their I-600 paperwork, item 2 above will be refunded at a rate of $500. If a family withdraws acceptance of referral after submission of their I-600 paperwork, item 2 above is non-refundable.

If a family withdraws after filing of I-600 but before the final trip, a pro-rated refund will be handled as follows, based in the first or second scenario described below as applicable:

- Scenario 1: Family withdraws prior to travel for the final trip but remains eligible and suitable for the program and chooses to await another referral: In this scenario, this Fifth Installment will be credited to the services rendered in connection to the acceptance of a future referral, provided the client(s) remains suitable and eligible to adopt and that the client(s) chooses to continue pursuing adoption in a Spence-Chapin International Adoption Program.
- Scenario 2: Family withdraws prior to final trip and discontinues pursuit of adoption with Spence-Chapin: In this scenario, this Fifth Installment will be refunded on a pro-rated basis of $1,500 as items 4-7 of this Fourth Installment will not yet have been rendered

<sup>4</sup> The fee stated is for families adopting one child. If you are adopting more than one child, an additional $815 per additional child after the first child will be charged. This is because in cases in which a family adopts multiple children, Spence-Chapin must render $815 per additional child beyond one child to CEAS. If you discontinue the adoption process for any reason after the payment of this third installment but before Spence-Chapin must file the reporting of an additional child to CEAS, the $815 per additional child will be refunded to you within sixty (60) days.

WAYS TO DEFRAY COSTS

Spence-Chapin makes every effort to help reduce financial barriers for families wanting to adopt. Spence-Chapin's professional services fees are broken to installments reflective of the services being rendered at that stage in the process. Spence-Chapin assesses fee waivers and reductions based on what services are required to be rendered on the case; for example, for clients who initiated their adoption process with another Adoption Service Provider and then transfer to Spence-Chapin, Spence-Chapin will assess the fee schedule based on what services Spence-Chapin must render on the case and will waive any fees for services that Spence-Chapin does not have to render based on milestones achieved in the case prior to transfer to Spence-Chapin.

Income-based financial aid can be assessed on a case-by-case basis.
