

International - New York Individual Adoption Services Fee Sheet

International Home Study Fees

Application	$175
NYS Administrative Fee	$300
Interagency Agreement Fee	$300
NY International Home Study	$2500

The Interagency Agreement fee is due at the completion of the pre-home study packet. The home study fee is paid in two installments. The first HS installment of $1250 is paid at the completion of the interagency agreement and prior to receiving the full home study packet. The second HS installment of $1250, is paid prior to social worker assignment.*

Concurrent International & Domestic Home Studies	$4,600
--	---------

Individual Adoption Service Fees

Home Study Update	$1,200
Home Study Addendum / Court Report (Home visit or further assessment required)	$500
Home Study Addendum (No home visit or further assessment required)	$250
Post-Placement Report	$450/visit and report; additional $100 for each sibling placed together

REFUND POLICY:

Refunds are granted for services not rendered and will be granted within 60 days.

In addition to the above-listed fees to Spence-Chapin, clients will be responsible for additional costs to third-parties during the adoption process, including but not limited to: country/program fees of primary provider (contact your primary provider for cost estimates), training (typically $85-$250), professional translation of documents (typically $0.25-$0.50 per word), professional translator during home study interviews, calls and training if family's preferred language is not English (typically $75-$100 per hour), child abuse clearances (typically $0-$20 per person per state), overnight/express delivery if requested by client (typically $0-$40), medical appointments (typically $0-$100 per person), certification of original documents such as birth certificates/marriage licenses/divorce decrees/death certificates (typically $0-$25 per document), travel fees, visa fees, passport fees, court fees (contact your primary provider for cost estimates). All intercountry adoptions have USCIS fees.